

SUMMER I 2021 UHM ACC200: INTRODUCTION TO ACCOUNTING I

Sec. 601 (MTWR 10:30AM – 12:15PM) in Zoom Class
 Instructor: Dr. David Yang (E-Mail: yangd@hawaii.edu)
 Office Hours: right after Zoom class at 12:15pm and by appointment

About our Zoom classes, quizzes and exams:

A. Zoom Classes:

This ACC 200 class section is taught online using Zoom. It is not a self-paced course. Students are expected to participate in the Zoom sessions at the class times indicated on the Schedule of Courses. This requires you to have reliable access to a computer with functioning camera, speaker and microphone and connection to the internet. Use of Laulima and Pearson's MyAccountingLab homework system is required.

B. Zoom Class Etiquette:

1. Ensure your technology works correctly.
2. Use cabled ethernet, not wifi, if possible. Otherwise, sit very close to your wifi router.
3. If you don't have Zoom installed, it will download when you join the Zoom meeting link.
4. Be punctual.
5. Wear campus-appropriate clothing.
6. Open and frame the camera correctly.
7. Make sure you have good light.
8. Have your full name appear with your picture.
9. Mute yourself when not speaking. Use a headset with a microphone if you prefer. Consider posting your comment/question in the Chat window.
10. Have your camera on when we have Zoom classes.
11. Pay attention. No multi-tasking.

C. Quizzes and Exams:

1. You are required to sign in your Zoom class and Laulima account to take quizzes or exams. You are required to check Chat messages. Please have your camera on and have your full name on your picture to count for your attendance. Solutions of quizzes and exams will be provided only in our Zoom classes.
2. Two common causes that you can't save your answers of quizzes or exams in your Laulima account: (a) when the same assessment is taken in multiple windows, and (b) when a user did not save their answers before a timed assessment expired.

COURSE OUTLINE

I. Course Description

This course is the first in a series of two Introduction to Accounting courses (ACC200 and ACC201) covering management accounting. ACC200 is an introduction to managerial accounting and methods used to report information to decision makers internal to the firm. Topics covered in ACC200 include:

- Chap. 1 Accounting and the Business Environment
- Chap. 15 Financial Statement Analysis
- Chap. 16 Introduction to Management Accounting
- Chap. 17 Job Order Costing
- Chap. 18 Process Costing (skip this Chapter)
- Chap. 19 Cost management Systems: Activity-Based, Just-In-Time, and Quality Management Systems
- Chap. 20 Cost-Volume-Profit Analysis
- Chap. 21 Variable Costing
- Chap. 22 Master Budgets
- Chap. 23 Flexible Budgets and Standard Cost Systems
- Chap. 24 Responsibility Accounting and Performance Evaluation
- Chap. 25 Short-term Business Decisions

II. Students Learning Outcome

After completing this course, students should be able to: understand the role of accounting in management; turn accounting data into information useful in the management process; and apply various accounting techniques and concepts in business decision scenarios. Specifically, students will learn job order costing, cost-volume-profit analysis, variable costing, performance evaluation using variances from standard costs, performance evaluation for decentralized operations, product pricing, cost allocation and activity-based costing, and cost management for just-in-time environment. The course uses readings, lectures, in-class practice problems, homework, and examinations to reinforce concepts and evaluate student mastery of the material.

III. Prerequisite

A student should have reached sophomore standing, i.e., a student has earned at least 25 credits.

IV. Course Materials

1. Horngren's Financial & Managerial Accounting, The Managerial Chapters, with access code, 6th Edition, Tracie Miller-Nobles, Brenda Mattison, Ella Mae Matsumura, 2018, Pearson Education, Inc. Interactive Digital Access Program (IDAP) edition (Required)
2. 2020 Annual Report of Walmart Stores Inc. (Required for Chapter 1 and Chapter 15 classes).

V. Grades

The following grading weights will apply to the course:

1 ST Mid-term Exam (Chapters 1 and 15; open-book and open-note)	15%
2 nd Mid-term Exam (Chapters 16, 17, 19, and 20; open-book and open-note)	25%
Final Exam (Chapters 21-25; open-book and open-note)	25%
Homework (Pearson's MyAccountingLab Homework system)	11%

Attendance	3%
Quizzes (open-book and open-note)	21%
Total	100%

In fairness to other students, late homework will not be accepted even for excused absences. The final grades will be on pluses (+) and minuses (-) grading system. C is the required grade for admission to Shidler College of Business.

VI. Attendance and Participation

Regular class attendance is considered a requirement of the course. The lecture and class discussion are an important part of the instructional program and, therefore, it is important that you be present on a regular basis. In appropriate situations, class attendance and participation may be taken into account in determining the final grades. All materials presented in lectures, whether or not covered in the text, may be tested on quizzes and/or exams.

VII. Requirements

1. You will be required to: (a) read all of the assigned readings, cases, problems and exercises, and (b) prepare solutions for the assigned cases, problems and exercises. All assignments to be turned in should be prepared on appropriate paper, and in professional format. Please write on only one side of the paper.
2. You are responsible for knowing about any changes in the syllabus, or any other information announced in class. If you miss a class, I suggest you consult your classmates and find out what you missed.
3. You are expected to attend every quiz or exam. No make-ups will be allowed without prior approval by the instructor. In the event of an emergency, please inform the instructor and seek necessary permission. Failure to do so will result in your absence being counted as an unexcused one.

VIII. Reminder

1. Please note that requests to reschedule exams are not allowed. Calculators are allowed for every exam and quiz, but smart phones, laptop computers or iPads are not allowed.
2. Please check "Academic Calendar" at <http://www.manoa.hawaii.edu/records/calendar> and also contact your academic advisor and/or the Undergraduate Office of Student Academic Service (Shidler College of Business, Room B101) for the last day to withdraw from this course.
3. Please read this syllabus carefully and retain it for future reference. Certain information such as final exam time, etc. is listed for your convenience. You are responsible for verifying their accuracy and bringing them to the attention of the instructor.
4. All assignments are due at the beginning of the class on the due date. Please don't check assignment solutions with the instructor before the due date. All work submitted must be that of the student. A student's submission of someone else's work as his/her own will result in the student's being dropped from the course with a grade F.
5. If you wish to know your final grade early, please send an E-mail request after the final exam.
6. Without completing prerequisites, you are not allowed to take this course.
7. Instances of academic dishonesty, as defined by the University Student Conduct Code

(available at http://studentaffairs.manoa.hawaii.edu/policies/conduct_code), in this class will not be tolerated and any instance of academic dishonesty will result in a grade of F. Further disciplinary sanctions may also be imposed by the Dean of Students in accordance with the fore-mentioned Student Conduct Code.

8. Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact the KOKUA Program for information and services. Services are confidential and students are not charged for them. Please contact KOKUA at kokua@hawaii.edu.
9. In the event of disturbances before or during class time (for example, bomb threats), please meet the instructor in the grassy area on the south side of George Hall. You will be given further instructions at that point. On days of scheduled exams, you will be directed to an alternate classroom to take the exam.

IX. Due Dates

1st Mid-term Exam (Chapters 1 and 15; open-book and open-note)	6/08 (T)

COURSE COMPLIANCE WITH VARIOUS CAMPUS POLICIES

Student Conduct: It is a privilege to be a member of the UH Manoa community. This privilege provides the student with the opportunity to learn and participate in the many programs that are offered on campus. Along with that privilege, the individual is expected to be responsible in relationships with others and to respect the special interests of the institution. These special interests are fully set forth in the UH System's Student Conduct Code. Information, advice, or a copy of the code may be obtained from the Office of Judicial Affairs, Queen Lili'uokalani Center for Student Services 207 or explore www.studentaffairs.manoa.hawaii.edu/policies/conduct code.

Academic Honesty: Students are expected to behave with integrity in all academic endeavors. Cheating, plagiarism, as well as any other form of academic dishonesty, will not be tolerated. All incidents will be handled in accordance with the UH Student Code of Conduct. The UH Student Code of Conduct, is available at: http://www.studentaffairs.manoa.hawaii.edu/policies/conduct_code. Please become very familiar with the University Student Conduct Code so you can make conscience and informed choices about your behavior. Some relevant portions of the code are included below for your convenience.

Acts of dishonesty, types of behavior that conflict with the community standards that the UH values and expects of students, include but are not limited to the following:

- a. cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty,
- b. furnishing false information to any UH official, faculty member, or office,
- c. forgery, alteration, or misuse of any UH document, record, or form of identification.

The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the UH faculty, staff or student (4) engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion.

The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

In addition to the above, the instructor specifically prohibits the following behaviors, and includes them within the definition of academic dishonesty: (1) providing another student with any form of direct or indirect, unauthorized assistance on any assignment, quiz, test or exam; and (2) copying, or recording in any manner, test or exam questions or answers.

Please note: UH disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and this Student Conduct Code (that is, if both possible violations result from the same factual situation) without regard to the pendency of civil or criminal litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution.

If a student is caught committing an act of Academic Dishonesty, as defined in the University Student Conduct Code, they will receive a grade of "F" for the course and be referred for disciplinary action as provided for by the University Student Conduct Code.

XI. Suggestions

This is a very interesting, useful and important course. Please motivate yourself by doing the following:

1. Study (not just read) your assigned readings thoroughly before classes.
2. Try your best to understand (not just memorize) the underlying concepts.
3. Do as many exercises and problems as possible. Do and review the problems assigned.
4. Review your textbook and class notes carefully after class.
5. Please don't hesitate to ask questions before, during or after class.
6. Please study accounting every day.
